Ruston Poole International supports fund-raising event for paralysed rugby players

The leading International Pharma and Life Sciences Executive Search group, Ruston Poole International, hosted an evening at the England vs Ireland Legends rugby match on Friday 26th February. The match was played in aid of the Matt Hampson Trust and Paralysed Rugby Players' Fund.

The match, held at the Stoop, Twickenham, featured stars of the recent past, including Jason Robinson, Jason Leonard, Martin Corry, Shane Byrne and Paddy Johns. Also playing a tireless part in the match was Ruston Poole's Director of International Search, Alex Bennett. For one evening, Alex put away his suit and tie and reminded everyone why he gained England A honours and was a star player for Saracens, Brive and Orrell.

Joining the Directors of Ruston Poole were a number of guests from various parts of the industry who enjoyed an evening of entertaining rugby. Speaking after the match, Paul Edwards, the Chief Executive of Ruston Poole International said, "Many people in our industry have, at some time in their younger days, played rugby at some level or other. It was therefore a real pleasure to be able to support the Matt Hampson Trust whilst having a fun evening."
